

GDPR enforcement by country: the bad students of EU

The General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR) is a law in the EU for the protection of personal data that came into force on May 25, 2018. This map shows the top 10 countries that have been fined for violating this law between 2019-01-01 and 2020-03-25.

